Final Portfolio: Revision

Module 1 Final // Sense of Place :

Revision:

In the first essay, I work on finding and removing grammar errors like typos and run-ons. I focused on expanding on the first source I used, which was Robert Sullivan's "I sing the Meadowlands!", by emphasising my central claim and deconstructing the quote I used from him. By also adding more profound questions, I tried helping the facilitation of readers to think more critically about the paper. Finally, I built a bit more on George Ella Lyon's quote and finishing statements.

Module 2 Final// Environmental and Justice:

Revision:

In the second essay, I wrote a stronger conclusion paragraph that exemplifies my main claim in a stronger light. Secondly, I updated my sources to include more facts and statistics about the Standing Rock and the Flint crisis. Basic grammar like run-ons, fragment sentences and typos were also fixed.
